

Driving Directions

From Route 190

- Take Route 198 East to the Elmwood Avenue Exit. After you exit, you will bear right and will be facing Buffalo State College.
- Enter campus by driving straight across Elmwood Avenue onto Iroquois Drive
- Follow the directions below.

From Route 33

- Take Route 198 West to the Elmwood Avenue South/Buffalo State College exit. This is the second Elmwood Ave exit. After you exit, you will pass over the 198 as you head south on Elmwood Ave. At the first light, turn right onto Iroquois Drive.
- Follow the directions below.

From Downtown/The Elmwood Strip

- Drive north on Elmwood Avenue. After you pass the Burchfield Penny Arts Center and Rockwell Hall on your left and the Albright Knox Art Gallery on your right, turn left onto Iroquois Drive. This is the road immediately after you pass Rockwell Hall and the Albright Knox Art Gallery.
- Follow the directions below.

From North Buffalo/Tonawanda

- Drive south on Elmwood Avenue. After you pass over the 198, turn right at the next light onto Iroquois Drive to enter campus.
- Follow the directions below.

Once on Iroquois Drive:

- Continue until the first stop sign (there is a sign for the planetarium on the stop sign).
- Turn left at the stop sign and drive a short distance into the S-1 parking lot.
- As you are approaching the parking lot, the Science Building will be in front of you on the opposite side of the parking lot (the Science Building has many pipes on its roof).
- The far corner of the parking lot is closest to the lobby entrance to the Science Building.
- Purchase tickets or exchange vouchers in our gift shop just off of the lobby.
